

Dinner Invitation

The honor of your presence is requested at Dinner and Dialogues

On Mondays: March 17, 24, 31, and April 7th, at 6:00 PM, we invite you for dinner followed at 6:30 PM with a presentation on:

“ Responding with Faith Saying ‘Yes’ to God” .

March 17th : Rev. Michael Ruminski—Pastor Sacred Heart Parish, Director of the Office of Divine Worship, Chaplain University of Hartford

March 24th: Maddie Smith—After serving for two years as a missionary at the United States Naval Academy, Maddie is now serving as a Team Director at Central Connecticut State University. Because of Jesus, a missionary’s life has been transformed in extraordinary ways—and she spread that joy. Together, Maddie and other missionaries help everyone experience a personal, intimate relationship with Christ through real, life-giving friendships.

March 31st: Bill Dunn—Bill returned to the Catholic Church many years ago after losing his faith in atheism. He works as a freelance writer and his humor column appears weekly in the Republican-American newspaper in Waterbury, CT. Bill posts a faith essay called “The Merry Catholic” each week on his website and can be heard on WJMJ, the radio station for the Hartford Archdiocese

April 7th: Deacon Bob Barry— Bob was ordained as a Deacon in June of 2012 and was assigned to St. Patrick Church. Upon the merger of St. Patrick and St. Mary Star of the Sea, he became the Deacon of the newly merged Our Lady of Knock Parish. Deacon Bob was born in Southington, CT, and grew up in Bristol. He graduated from Morse School of Business in Hartford as a Computer Science Major. He is married, and God has blessed him and his wife Jennifer with three beautiful children.
